

IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Will of Bridget Kelly Admitted—P. F. Bray Executor—Many Pensioners.

On Wednesday the will of Bridget Kelly who died in her home on Central avenue on January 7 was admitted by Judge Ayling in the probate court. The appraisers were named as Charles O. Murphy, and Michael J. Malone. The will is dated April 23, 1909 and was written by Attorney John F. Huntington. Patrick F. Bray is made executor of the will, which states that in case he did not survive Michael Bray should take his place.

The sum of $400 is given to the executor for memorial services in St. Mary's church and the sum of $100 for like services in St. Patrick's church. The sum of $250 is given to St. Patrick's church corporation for the care of the Kelly lot in St. Mary's cemetery and for the filling and care of the vase each year.

To Mary and Catherine Bray, children of Mrs. Margaret Bray, is left the house on Sixth street that Miss Kelly inherited from the estate of her father.

To Michael Bray is given the sum of $1000 and all the furniture and furnishings in the house occupied by Miss Kelly at 139 North Main street.

To Patrick F. Bray is given the sum of $1000, $500 to Joseph Bray, and $1000 to Patrick Bray, 2d, son of Joseph Bray.

The sum of $1000 is left in trust with Michael Bray for Mrs. Bridget Kelly and in case of her death it is to be held in trust until her youngest child is 21 and then it is to be divided among the children equally.

In case there are no children surviving then the money is to be paid to the sisters of Mrs. Murphy, Mary and Catherine Bray.

The sum of $3200 is left in trust for Patrick Kelly of Sheldon, Iowa, a brother of Miss Kelly. At the death of Mr. Kelly the money is to go to his children as follows: $1000 to Elizabeth Kelly, $500 each to Margaret, Jenny, Mary and Catherine Kelly and $100 each to James and Joseph Kelly.

In case of the death of any of the children their shares are to be divided among the survivors.

The sum of $1000 is left in trust for an altar to the Blessed Virgin in St. Mary's church to be erected in memory of a brother of Miss Kelly, the late Timothy Kelly.

The rest of the estate is to be divided into equal parts and is to be distributed as follows: Two parts to Michael Bray, one each to Patrick F. Bray and Mary and Catherine Bray, children of Miss Kelly, and one part to Patrick F. Bray, 2d, in trust for his father, Joseph F. Bray. At the death of the latter the money will go to Patrick F. Bray, 2d.

ALFRED L. AIKEN.

Chosen President of the Worcester National Bank—Will Resign Other Presidency.

At their annual meeting Tuesday the Worcester National bank directors elected Alfred L. Aiken, president of the Worcester County National Bank, to succeed James P. Hamilton who died recently.

Mr. Aiken is the son of General and Mrs. William A. Aiken of this city. He will assume his duties as president of the Worcester National bank on Jan. 22, resigning from the presidency of the Worcester County National Bank. Mr. Aiken immediately as the law prohibits one person to fill administrative offices in National and Savings banks at the same time.

OBITUARY.

Austin Ledyard Gray.

On Wednesday morning, 15th inst., at 10 o'clock Austin Ledyard Gray, one of Ledyard's oldest and highest respected citizens, passed away after a brief illness at the home of his brother, John M. Gray, on Meeting House Hill, in the 65th year of his age. Mr. Gray was a native of Ledyard and with the exception of a few years spent the whole of his life in the town. For the past 25 years he assisted his brother in conducting a grocery store and was always faithful to his duties. In the year 1887 he united with the Congregational church, during the pastorate of Rev. Charles Cutting. He was never very robust in health and was naturally of a very retiring disposition. He was exceedingly conscientious in all his dealings. He never married, but made his home with his brother and his family, who cared for him tenderly. About three years ago he underwent an operation and since that time had gradually failed, though able to attend to business until last Saturday evening. His death was unexpected, as it was not thought that the illness was serious. All that loving care could do was done for him, but without avail. He had a large circle of friends who entertained the most kindly feeling towards him. He is survived by one brother, J. M. Gray, and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Lockwood and Mrs. Sarah Gilbert of New London.

James M. Lockwood.

James M. Lockwood of No. 48 Capen street died at St. Francis hospital, Hartford, Tuesday evening, aged 54 years. He was employed as a wood turner. He leaves three brothers, Frederick, Charles and William Lockwood, all of Hartford, and two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Vergason of Norwich and Mrs. Eliza Travers of Waterbury. Burial will be in Glast.

Mrs. Charles H. Freeman.

(Special to The Bulletin.) Mrs. Julia West, widow of Charles H. Freeman, of 154 Lincoln street, is dead at her home in Worcester, following a few weeks' illness of pneumonia. She was 59 years old. She was a native of Norwich and lived in this city many years. One daughter, Mrs. Jennie H. Larkum, survives.

Incidents In Society.

The Reading club met Tuesday with Mrs. Gardiner Greene.

Mrs. Grosvener Ely gave a dinner of eight covers Tuesday evening.

The Wednesday Bridge club met yesterday with Mrs. Albert G. Mitchell of Rockwell terrace.

Miss Susan C. Hyde of Washington street leaves today (Thursday) for a visit with friends in Hartford.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Alling leave town the last of the month to spend the remainder of the winter in Miami, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Bigelow gave a very delightful informal supper party, followed by dancing, after the concert on Tuesday evening.

Miss Jane Aiken entertained the Wednesday Auction club this week, the prize, an arts and crafts purse, being won by Miss Ada L. Richards.

Miss Adele Margulies and Messrs. Lichtenberg and Schults of the Margulies trio were guests while in town of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Mitchell.
